Foreword

As you stroll through the campus of Birmingham-Southern College, you become aware of buildings, people, activity — the component parts of a college campus; but if you look closer you will notice the intangible qualities that make 'Southern, not just any college, but an unique way of life within itself.

Impressions

As you walk up the cool, grey sidewalk in the morning brightness to the steps where the path is bathed in shadows, a sense of beauty surrounds your very being and you breathe in the clear, cloudless blue, and the clean grass smell.

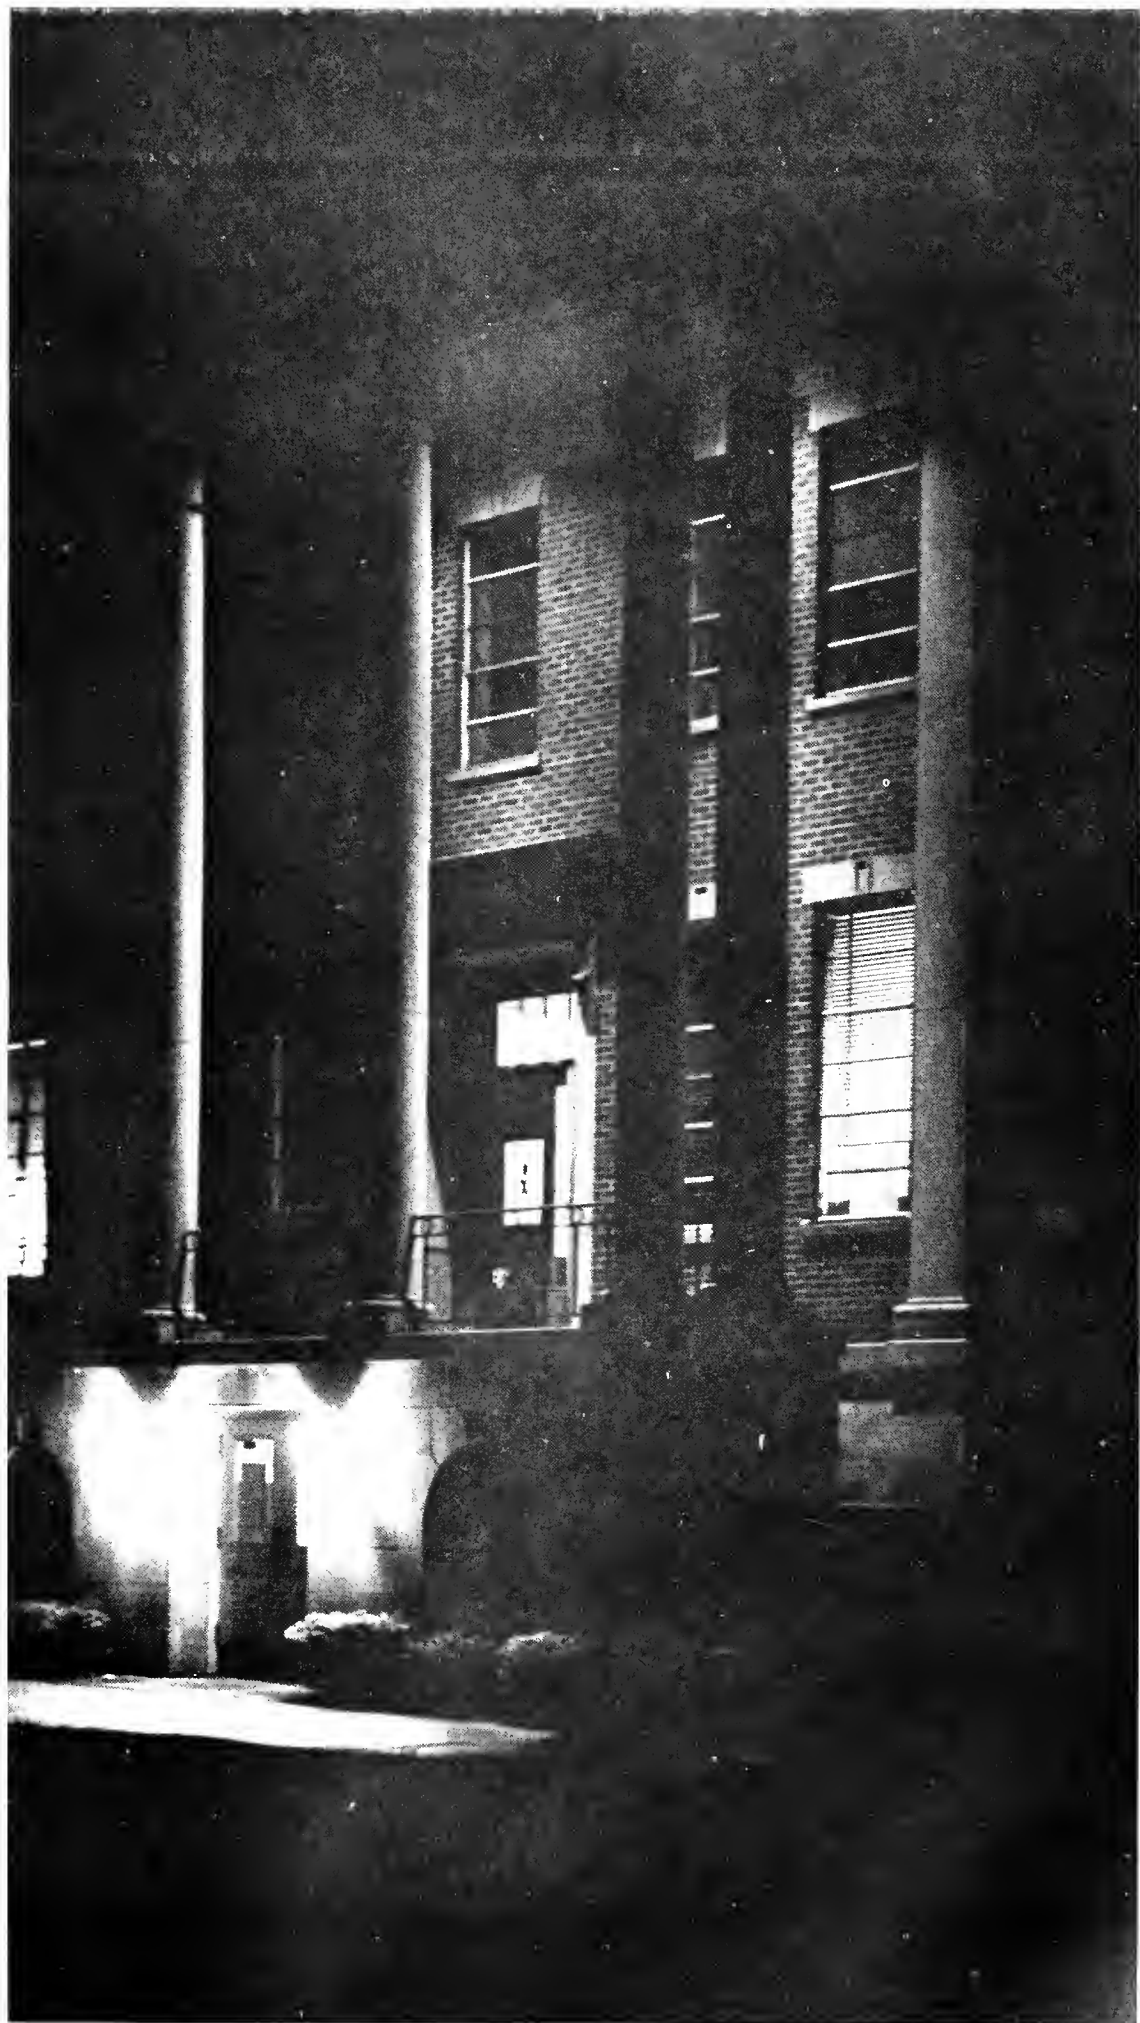

As the sun rises in the sky and the day moves on, activity begins. At first glance, the beauty of the day seems to be purposely ignored; but if you look closer, you'll see it's there — in the trio silhouetted against the sky; in the couple in the lonely stadium; in the quiet scene of the quad; in the face of a person.

The sun goes down behind the blackening trees on the hilltop and with it the worries and cares of the day. A sense of rest and peace steal over us — occasionally to be broken by giggles of those going to a party, by talk on the porch of a dorm — but, then to fill us again, this time more fully, more deeply.

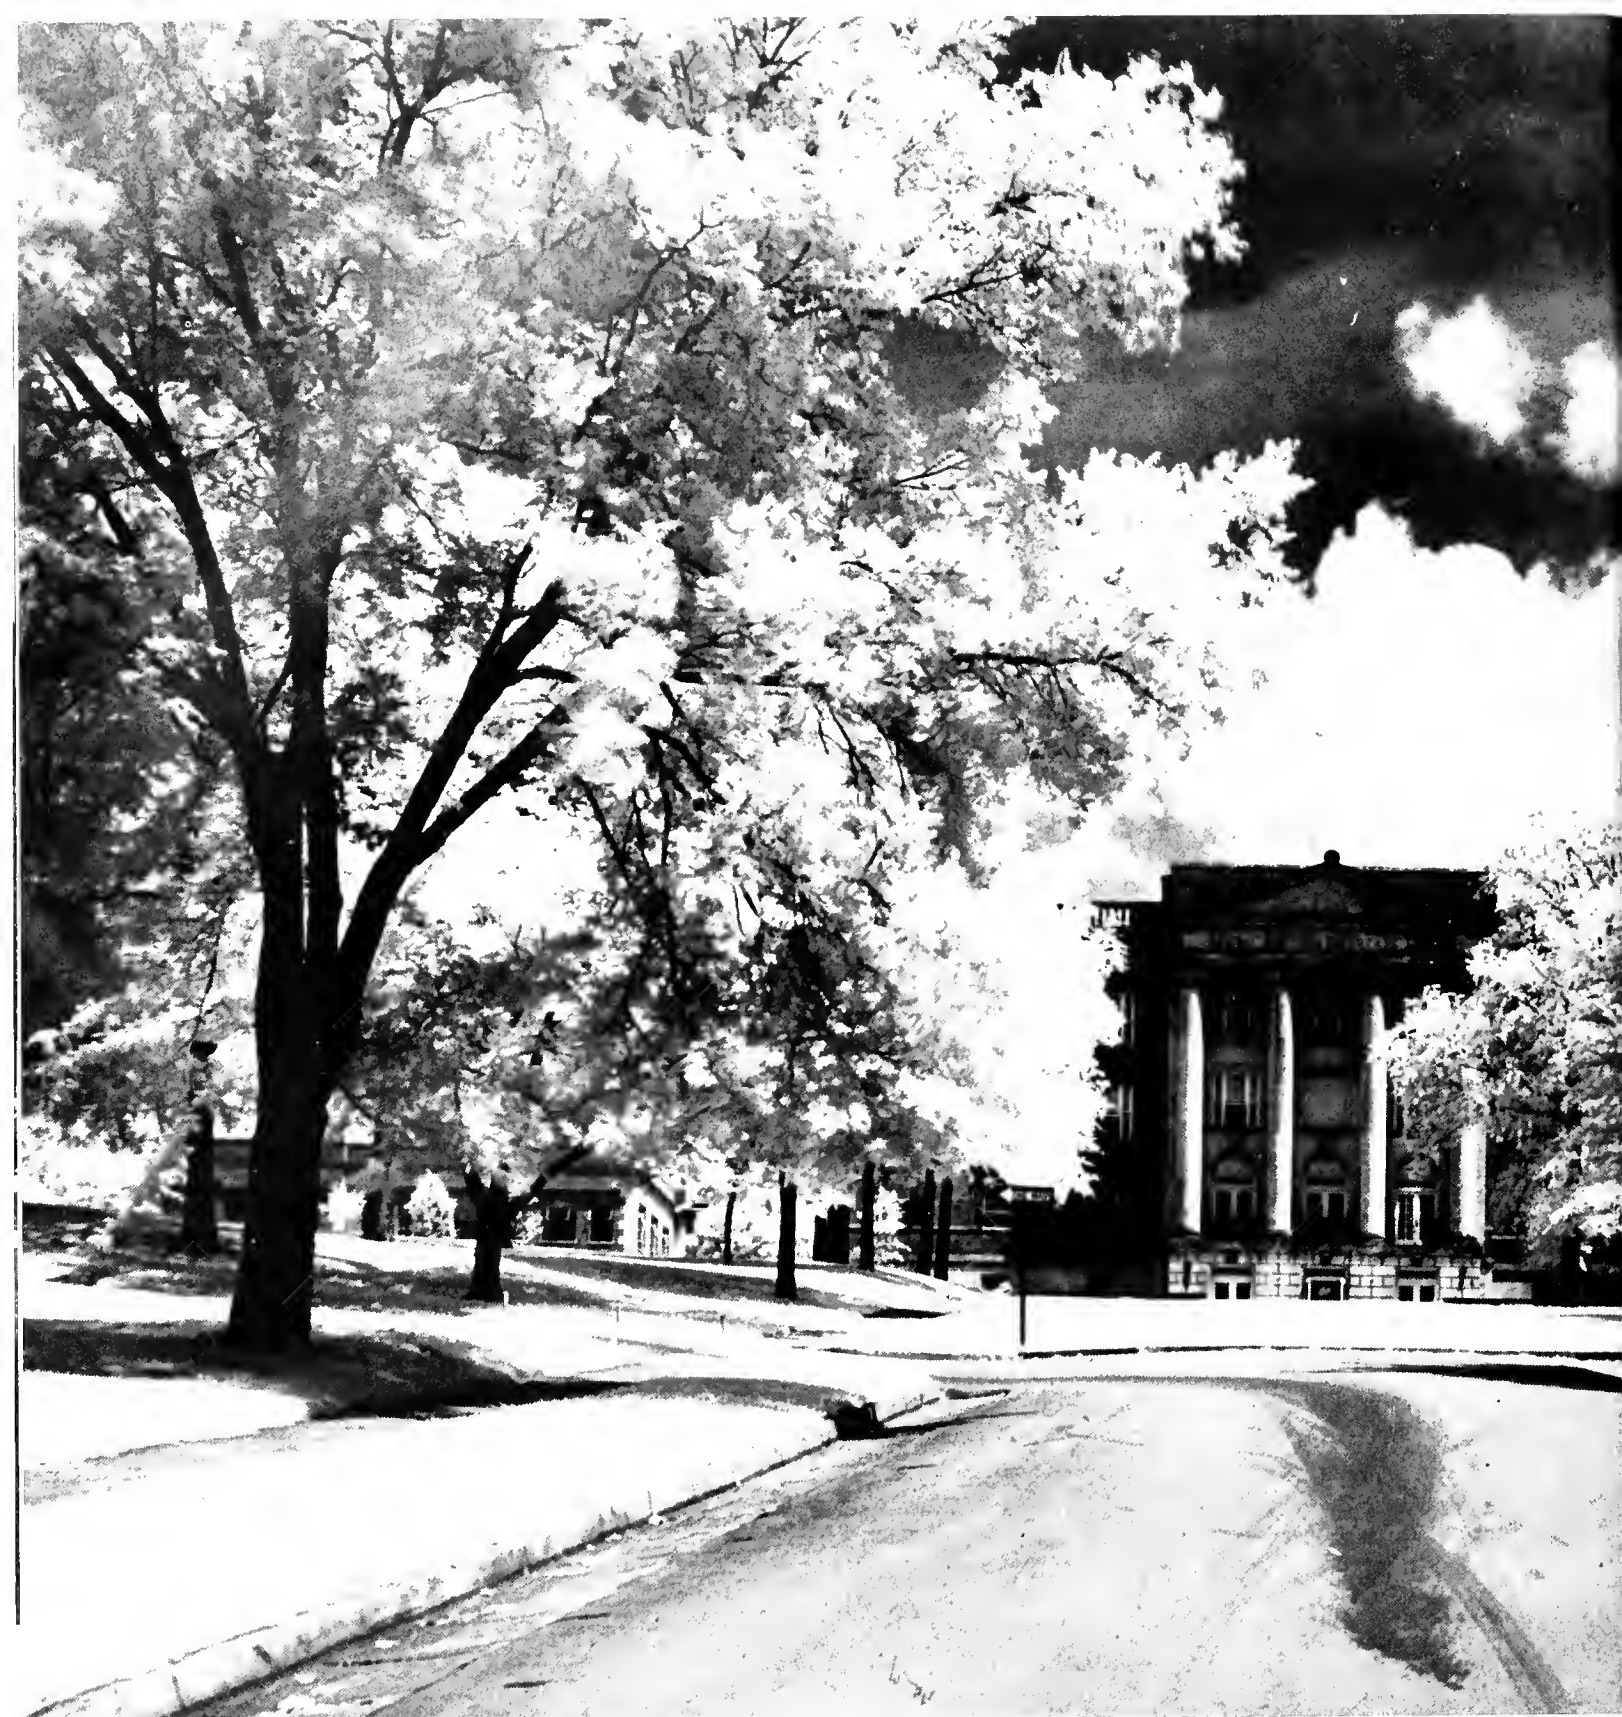

Mr. Hugh Thomas

Dedication

A sensitive artist, a kind friend, a talented man — these are qualities found in Mr. Hugh Thomas, head of the Birmingham Conservatory of Music.

For his leadership and guidance in affairs concerning the Conservatory, we recognize him and dedicate to him the 1958 Southern Accent.

Munger, with its second floor administrative offices, auditorium, and classrooms, represents the center of the Hilltop.

The Hilltop

Dr. Henry King Stanford

The President

In the one short year that Dr. Stanford has been the active president of Birmingham-Southern College, he has gained the respect and friendship of faculty, students, and administration. His genuine interest in all phases of campus life and his ability to get things done are two of his valuable virtues. These, plus his tremendous store of knowledge and past experiences, have made him well-qualified to hold the position of president of 'Southern.

THE PRESIDENT'S home is a beautiful building facing the 8th Avenue entrance to the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanford enjoy Catspaw together.

STUDENTS at the SAE Tea find Dr. Stanford a very interesting person.

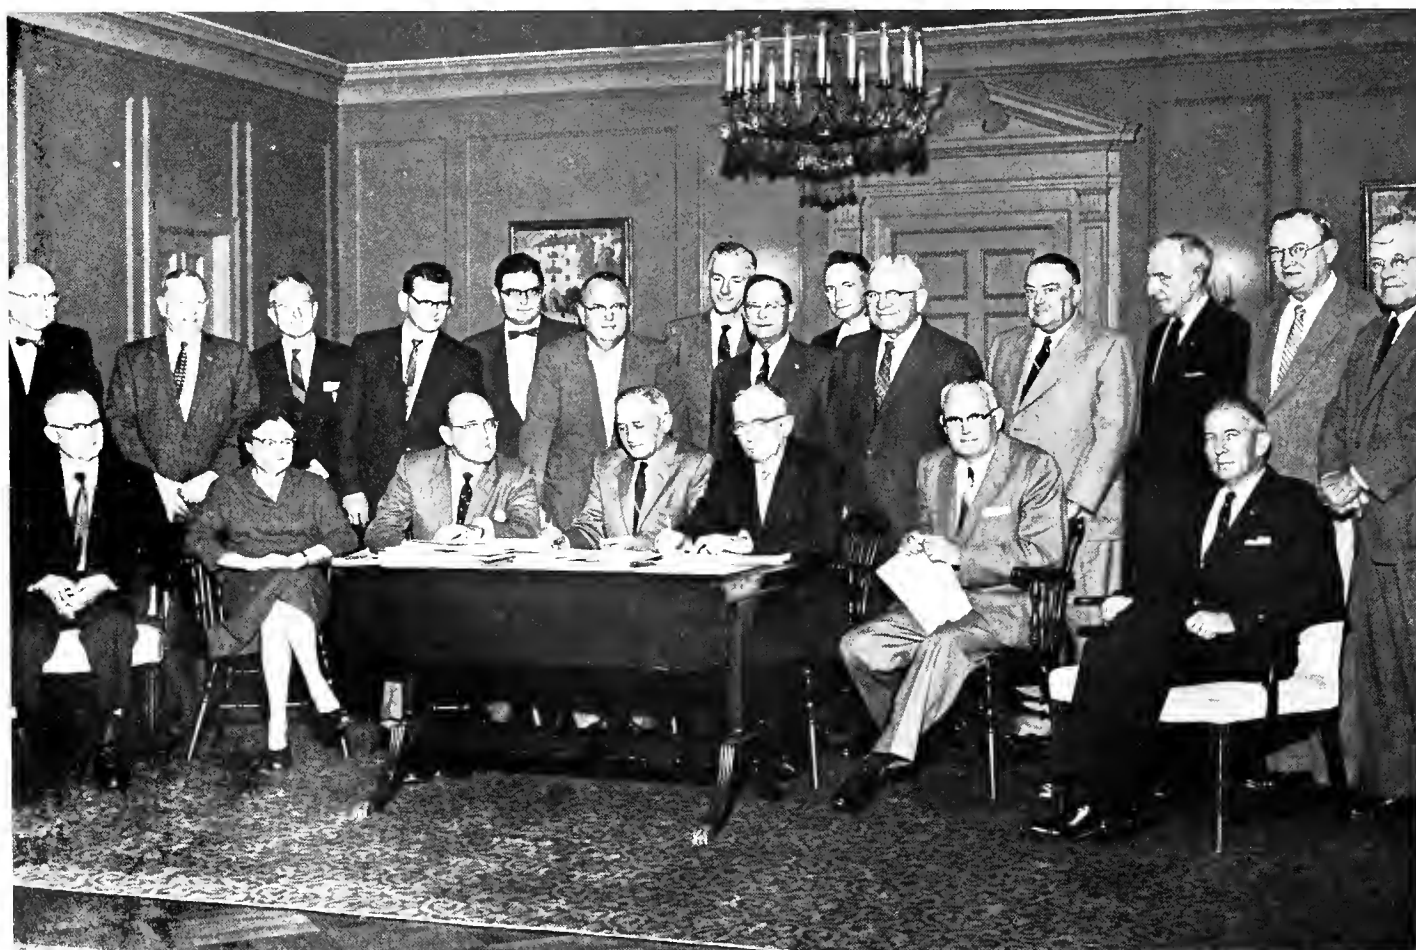

DR. STANFORD enjoys the opening of the Student Center with several students.

Music

MR. HUGH THOMAS
Head of the Conservatory of Music

The Birmingham Conservatory of Music since 1940 has been an integral part of Birmingham-Southern College. It is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music and has many outstanding persons on its faculty.

Two degrees are offered by the Conservatory — A Bachelor of Music degree and a Bachelor of Music Education degree. The Conservatory is now located in the Simpson Building, but plans are being made for a new Fine Arts Building.

Natural Sciences

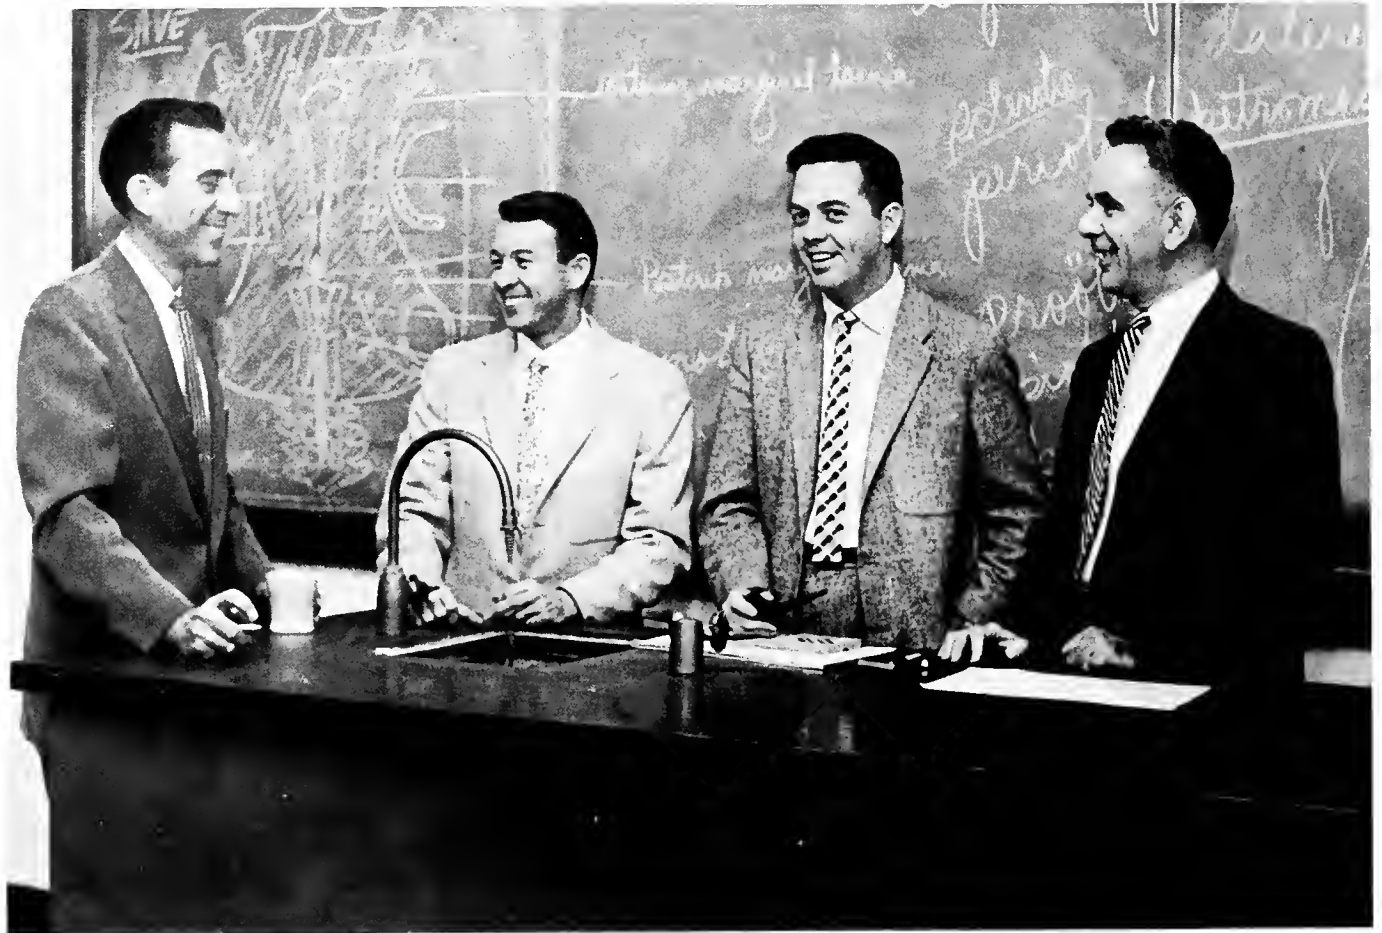

The Natural Sciences Division includes courses in biology, chemistry, geography, geology, mathematics and physics, and offers majors in each of these courses. It is known for including some of the hardest departments in college.

DR. HAROLD EDWIN WILCOX
Head of Department of Chemistry

M. Paul Phillips Science Building

Natural Sciences

In the Biology Department a student may take courses with an emphasis on zoological sciences or the botanical sciences. Courses are designed for the pre-dental, pre-medical, and future-teacher students. This department prides itself on being hard, thorough, and fair.

DR. CHARLES B. BLAIR, JR.
Head of Department of Biology

KEEPING A well-stocked store-room in order is part of chemistry students' responsibilities.

DISECTING A frog and learning its various muscles and systems are part of the Biology 101 course.

Social Sciences

Courses in economics, business administration, education, history, political science, physical education, psychology, religion, secretarial studies, and sociology are offered in the Social Sciences Division.

The history department is the largest department in this division and offers interesting courses under well-trained professors.

DR. JOSEPH HOWARD PARKS
Head of Department of History

Stockham Woman's Building

Social Sciences

With the increasing awareness of the great need for physical fitness and the ability to participate in worthy leisure time activities, the Physical Education Department faces many problems and challenges.

Through conferences, studies, and trips to other colleges the Department, with the help of other faculty members, has attempted to evaluate its program and to state the goals and educational values derived from participation in this field.

MR. WILLIAM RAINES BATTLE
Head of Department of

THE NEW and modern Hanson Hall houses 130 girls.

Dorm Quad

THE GIRLS' House Council is composed of representatives from Andrews and Hanson Halls.

ANDREWS HALL, with its exterior and interior re-decorated, affords a good home for many girls.

A new addition to the dormitory area is the new Men's Dorm with the Student Center in the basement.

HOUSEMOTHERS Mrs. Browdy of the New Men's Dorm, Mrs. Sherrod of Hanson, and Mrs. Lauther of Andrews enjoy tea and a get-together.

THE HOUSE Council of the New Men's Dorm.

Bowed heads of graduating seniors, other students, professors, and parents emphasize the seriousness and challenge of college.

The much-talked-about Student Center becomes a reality under the leadership of the Executive Council.

Organizations

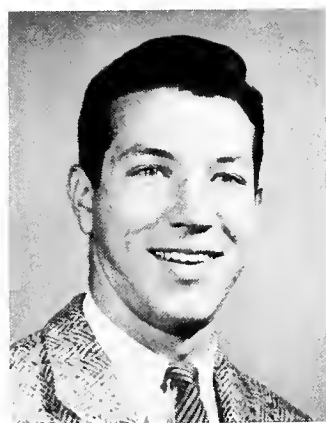

MILTON BOYKIN, president of the Student Body.

IT LOOKS like Mr. Stanford and "Sweet Willie" Dean are eating up the Student Center profits.

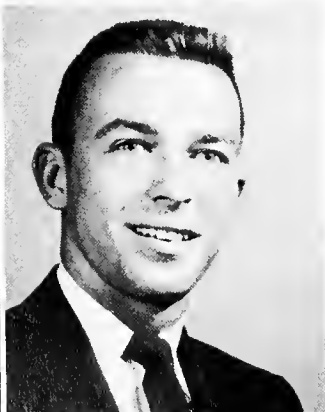

Executive Council

S. T. KIMBROUGH
Vice-President

HELEN LANDEL
Secretary

WALLACE GRADDICK
Treasurer

The Executive Council is the student government organization on campus and is composed of representatives from both upper and lower divisions.

Some of the Council's annual projects include the sponsoring of such activities as Catspaw and May Day. It is also responsible for the publication of the Student Handbook.

This year the Executive Council was particularly active. Under the leadership of Milton Boykin the Council carefully studied and revised the appropriations of the Student Activities Fee. They sponsored a Christmas dance featuring Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra and they made the long-talked-about Student Center a reality.

THE STUDENT CENTER, planned and operated by the Executive Council, is a popular student hangout.

Honor Council

OFFICERS

President	CLAY LONG
Vice-President	KATIE HAYNES
Secretary	HELEN LANDEL
Publicity Chairman	BETTY SAPP

The Honor Council is an organization elected by the Executive Council for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the Honor Code. It instructs new students in the functioning of the honor system, reminds students of the pledge they signed upon entering B. S. C., and when necessary, meets to sentence offenders.

The Publications Board is composed of the editors and business managers of The Hilltop News and The Southern Accent; the president and secretary of the Executive Council, and three faculty members. This board meets to supervise and solve problems concerning the two student publications. Mrs. Virginia Hamilton serves as chairman.

Publications Board

The Student Life Committee is a group composed of both faculty members and student leaders. Its function is to approve times, dates, and places for parties, dances, and other functions put on by campus groups.

It keeps a calendar of scheduled events. Dr. Jolly is chairman of the group and Mrs. Cothran serves as secretary.

Student Life Committee

Front Row: N. Whatley, Mrs. Cothran, Dr. Jolly, B. Waters, G. Spruill. Back Row, Left to Right: M. Kolbe, M. Boykin, Dr. Hites, Dean Shanks, Dr. Butts, J. Martin, Dr. Weaver, T. Hearn, Dr. Bumgartner, C. Long.

CONNIE BOZE, Editor

JOHN THORNTON, Business Manager

The Southern Accent

The 1958 Southern Accent is the result of an attempt to present life on the Hilltop in a new and different way. It is an attempt to combine the simple and beautiful and the collegiate. It is an attempt to create a lasting impression of Birmingham-Southern College. How well we have succeeded, only time will tell.

Lovely Barbara Neely, 1957-58 Miss Southern Accent, is surrounded by five other finalists who vied for the coveted title.

Beauties

Miss Southern Accent . .

Miss Barbara Neely

Each year the highest honor on the Hilltop — the title of Miss Southern Accent — is awarded to the loveliest co-ed. This year a pretty, green-eyed brunette reigns as Southern's queen. The soft graciousness of a Southern belle, the dignity of a courtly lady — this is Miss Barbara Neely.

Prettiiness is not Barbara's only attribute. She is also a talented artist and is active in campus life. A junior, majoring in music, Barbara is affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha Social sorority and sings with the College Choir and Ensemble.

Vivacious, charming, and gracious is Miss Barbara Neely — the "fairest of the Hilltop."

Composed of two representatives from each of the six sororities on campus, the Panhellenic Council meets often to formulate plans for rushing and other policy matters relating to sorority life.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Cothran, dean of women, the Council prepares information concerning sorority names and rushing regulations. This information is given to all girls going through rush.

A Panhellenic tea for all new girls formally opens rush in the fall. An advisory board, Junior Panhellenic Council, a dance, an all-campus reception honoring Dr. Armstrong, and a workshop in the spring for officer training are major functions of this Council.

Participation and work characterized the Alpha Omega chapter of Alpha Chi Omega this year.

The Alpha Chis participated in every campus event from intramural sports to Catspaw to Inter-Fraternity Sing.

Their members worked in religious organizations, choir, Theta Sigma Lambda, the Executive Council, Intramural Council, and the Water Ballet. One of their members represented them in the beauty section of the annual.

The social life of the Alpha Chis was a very busy one. A Founder's Day banquet with the alumni group, Halloween and Christmas parties and supper get-togethers in the sorority room were among some of their events.

Tau Delta Chapter

Defending champions of the Interfraternity Sing trophy and the Good Sportsmanship cup, the Tau Delta Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi participated again in many campus functions and social events.

The AOPis have done extensive philanthropic work. Among their projects were visiting and assisting children in the Elyton Village area and presenting the annual Mr. Hilltopper show — the proceeds of which went to their national philanthropic project. For their work this chapter was given the award of the outstanding AOPi chapter in the nation for their contribution to philanthropic service. They also received the City Panhellenic Philanthropic Plaque.

Outstanding on the social calendar were a weekend trip to the Warrior River in honor of the pledges, a campus get-acquainted tea also for the pledges, a Christmas party, a Founders' Day luncheon, and a Mother-Daughter tea.

Around the campus, AOPis were found participating in Eta Sigma Phi, P. E. Club, Amazons, Mortar Board, College Theater, Water Ballet, Executive Council, and the Student Life Committee. Four AOPis were cheerleaders and four were in the beauty section of the Southern Accent.

Kappa Delta

Alpha Upsilon Chapter

With the Progress Award from convention, the Kappa Deltas again combined campus activities with social events for a highly successful year.

As soon as rush was over, the twelve new wearers of the KD shield entered into the spirit of things by honoring all the sorority pledges with their now-traditional Halloween party. The social life of the whole sorority was enhanced by numerous banquets, coffees, and the annual steak-fry in the fall.

Kappa Delta's philanthropic work included providing a basket for a family at Thanksgiving, as well as continuing their support of a Korean child through the Foster Parents' Plan. Also, many hours were spent in entertaining at the Children's Hospital. This was a project begun by the pledges.

The Kappa Delta spirit shone brightly in many campus organizations and activities, including Mortar Board, KDE, Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Sigma Iota, Triangle Club, Intramural Council, religious organizations, and the Honor Council. Along with the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, the KDs captured second place in Catspaw.

Kappa Deltas were also represented in the beauty section of the Southern Accent, and one of their members was honored by being chosen "Sweetheart of SAE."

Pi Beta Phi

Alabama Alpha Chapter

Active in many campus projects this year, Pi Phis wore a host of pins in addition to their arrows.

They boasted members in Who's Who, dorm councils, cheerleaders, KDE, Religious Council, College Theater, Honor Council, Mortar Board, publications, religious organizations, Phi Sigma Iota, Triangle Club, and intramurals.

Two of the arrow girls were fraternity sweethearts — one of ATO and one of Theta Chi. Three were class officers and three won a place in the beauty section of the Southern Accent.

The Alabama Alpha Chapter had a full social schedule that included an all-campus Stardust dance in honor of their pledges, a Mother-Daughter banquet, an all-campus reception honoring all sorority and fraternity pledges, spend-the-night parties, and many room parties.

Activity-wise the Phi Phis placed second in volleyball and first in badminton and tennis doubles. They had a great year, but they and the whole campus are still asking, "Who sent around the flu bug during rush?"

Zeta Tau Alpha

Alpha Nu Chapter

"Seek the Noblest" was the guiding thought that led the Zetas through 1957-58.

Zeta shields shone in every campus activity. They joined with other Hilltoppers to participate in College Theater, religious organizations, the Hilltop News, the Southern Accent, Intramurals, the Choir, and Water Ballet. With the Lambda Chi Alphas, they took third place in Catspaw.

Five lovely Zetas graced the beauty section of the yearbook as Miss Southern Accent, three beauties and two favorites. Popularity was theirs, too, with the Crescent Girl of LXA, the retiring Dream Girl of PiKA, and the present Dream Girl of PiKA all wearing the crown and shield of ZTA.

Athletics were an important part of the life of Alpha Nu members. They spiked their way to the volleyball championship and strove to retain the Miss Victory Cup.

Zetas shared the fun of spend-the-night parties, the Christmas party at Vestavia Country Club, the Songfest, and an all-campus coffee honoring Miss Southern Accent. At the close of a successful year the Zetas shared a weekend of fun and relaxation at their annual house party in Panama City, Florida.

The Theta Upsilon National Convention in July, 1957, set the pace for Xi chapter in 1957-1958. Pledges and Actives can be found working in sports, Water Ballet, College Theater, Southern Accent staff.

Honors were bestowed on the Xi members throughout the year — elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, KDE, and Phi Sigma Iota.

The social life was not ignored with the informal coffee for alums, annual Christmas party, and the Hillbilly party given the actives by the pledges.

Theta Us teamed up with the SAEs to capture the Catspaw trophy and thus highlighting a happy year.

The co-ordinator of fraternity activities and affairs is the Interfraternity Council. The group, composed of two representatives from each fraternity, meets frequently to rule on and discuss problems pertinent to fraternity life.

Setting up and enforcing rush rules and promoting the IFC dance in the spring are two main functions of the Council. It is the link between the fraternities and the administration.

Sweetheart of Alpha Tau Omega
SALLIE SIBLEY

Beta Beta Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega began this school year in fine style. From a topnotch pledge class came several promising campus leaders — the President and the Vice-President of the Freshman Class. Not forgetting the actives, the President of the Student Body and the Editor of the Hilltop News were ATOs. ODK, MSM and numerous other campus organizations also had ATOs actively participating in them.

Sports-wise, the ATOs were also tops — winning the first place trophy in football, swim-meet and basketball. Several ATOs also won first places in individual sports.

The Taus didn't neglect their social life, either. A fishing trip, parties at the house, a Sweetheart Dance honoring their retiring sweetheart, Sara Anne Statom, and their new sweetheart, Sallie Sibley, and a week-end house-party rounded out a memorable year for the ATOs.

*Kappa Alpha Nominee in the

SONDRA ANDERSON

Since its founding in 1865, Kappa Alpha Order has endeavored to perpetuate those traits of character immortalized in that greatest of gentlemen, Robert E. Lee. Southern hospitality is their heritage and their pride.

In 1882, Kappa Alpha came to the campus of old Southern University in Greensboro, Alabama, and ever since, Phi Chapter has been outstanding in every field — politics, athletics, scholarship, honoraries, social, and religion.

The KAs are always well represented on the athletic side of campus life. They have several members playing on the varsity basketball team, and their intramural basketball team won the Intramural Basketball Tournament Championship.

The social side of the fraternity life is never neglected. One of the highlights of the year is their Convivium Banquet honoring Lee. The Florida house-party in May signals the end of classes and the last party of a very successful year.

Crescent Girl of Lambda Chi Alpha
ELIZABETH HOUSTON

A very active year for the Lambda Chi Alphas began with the re-decoration of the complete interior of their house. Next on the list was improvements on the grounds.

On the social calendar were many parties. By far the most enjoyable one was the Bowery Party. Then, of course, there was the annual Steak and Bean Supper — steak for those making good grades and beans for the others.

In the campus activity section, the Crescentmen were again active. Wilkins returned from the Management Training Seminar at Ball State College to fill posts on the IFC and Toreadors; Butts was elected a member of the Executive Council and Phi Eta Sigma, and Cashion was elected V-P of Theta Sigma Lambda. Paired with Zeta Tau Alpha, the Lambda Chis placed third in Catspaw.

The Lambda Chis rounded out an eventful year with the selection of Liz Houston, Zeta Tau Alpha, as Crescent Girl; combined Alumni and chapter meetings; a Founder's Day Banquet, and the annual house party.

SUE BROWN

During 1957-58, Delta Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha kept in mind its position on the Hilltop and reached new heights in all phases of campus leadership. The president of the Senior Class and the president of Toreadors were both Pikes, while seven others made the touring choir, three had leads in "Brigadoon" and four more were in the chorus. With the KDs the Pikes took second place in Catspaw with their skit, "The King and Us."

In the area of philanthropic work Delta members were also active. They entertained at the Veterans and Children's Hospitals and gave gifts to crippled children on Christmas Eve.

In athletics, the Pikes took second in the swim meet and placed in football and basketball. They also had a tennis trophy to defend.

The Pikes' social events were numerous and much fun. The Thanksgiving dinner, Halloween and Christmas parties, Dream Girl Ball, All-Campus Jam Session and Founder's Day were huge successes with the annual house party climaxing a great year.

CAROL MANASCO

Alabama Iota of Sigma Alpha Epsilon in 1957-58 enjoyed one of the most successful years of its 80-year history.

Individually, the Brothers were active in every phase of campus life. SAEs held the presidencies of ODK, Honor Council, Religious Council, Phi Eta Sigma, Triangle Club, Canterbury Club, and the vice-presidency of the Student Body.

Combining with Theta Upsilon, the SAEs took first place in Catspaw. This year also saw the formal opening of their new house with Dr. and Mrs. Stanford as honored guests.

The SAEs' social calendar was full, as usual. Annual affairs such as the Halloween, Christmas, and Sweetheart parties were enjoyed along with numerous drop-ins at the house. The lake party and the houseparty in the spring always prove high points of their social year.

MARTIN & MARTIN Productions presents an hilarious Catspaw skit featuring the Theta Chis and Independent Women.

With Big John Thompson at center, the Southern Panthers win the tip-off from the Jacksonville State Gamecocks.

Athletics

Panthers-1957-58

HIGH POINT man, Glen Clem, with an 18.2 game average, leaps high into the air to practically put the ball in the basket.

The Birmingham-Southern Panthers ended a fine basketball season with a 13-8 record. While hampered at times by lack of teamwork, the Panther cagers, coached by Bill Burch, played their best all the way. They lost some real heartbreakers on their road trips, sometimes by only one point, but they were almost unbeatable on their home court.

Nine men were awarded varsity basketball letters this year. Captain Jim Ensor got his fourth in as many years, while the tall center, John Thompson, and fast Johnny Lee Smith got their third. Others getting letters were forwards Glen Clem and Jim Stooke, center Tom Light, and guards Laney Yelverton and co-captain Harold Pickel.

With only Captain Jim Ensor graduating, the 'Southern Panthers next season should pose a real threat to rival teams.

With his eyes on the basket, Alternate Captain Harold Pickel strains to get by some FSC guards.

WITH ballet-like motion, Laney Yelverton dunks in two points with a beautiful lay-up shot.

JOHN THOMPSON, the tall Panther center, tries a one hand jump which adds to the B-S-C tally.

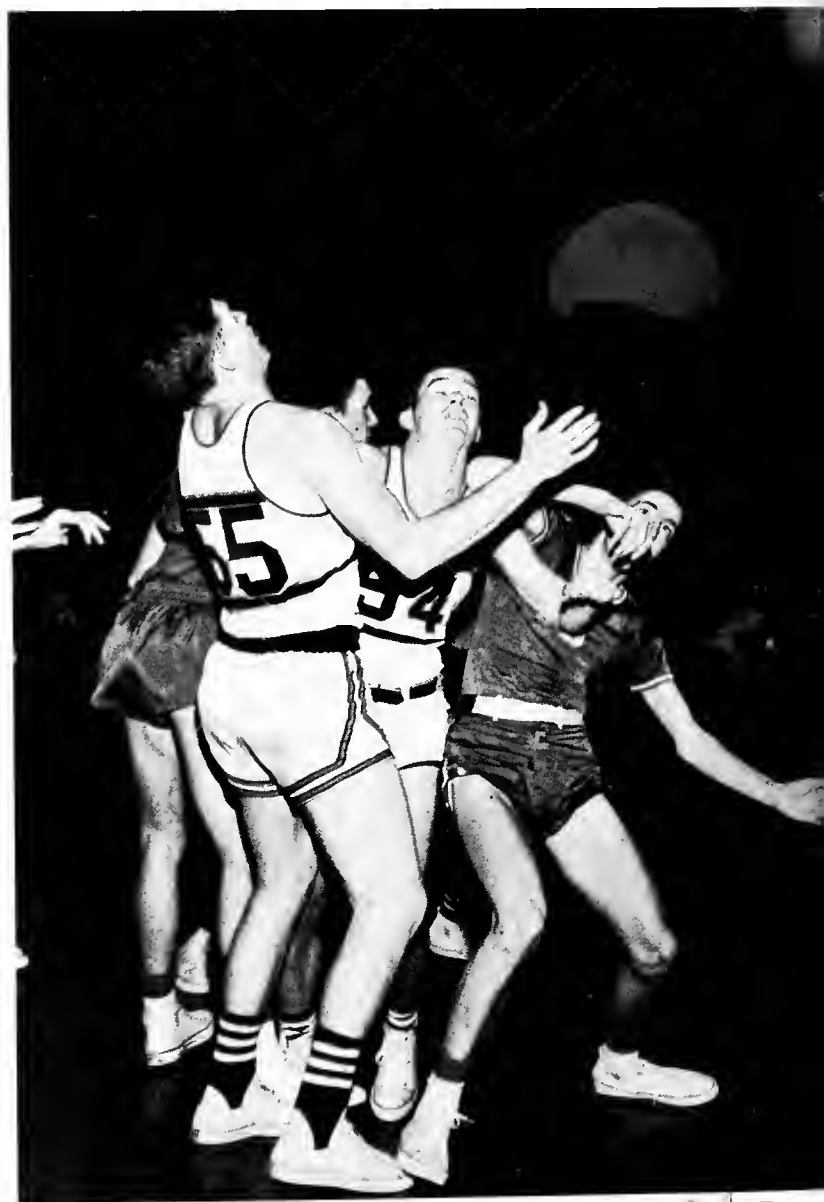

A large and interested audience attended the Southern basketball games throughout the season.

Varsity Swim Team

The badly under-manned varsity swimming team closed its second season without a win. Coached by Frederick Opperman, the Aquamen competed with F. S. U., Vanderbilt, Sewanee, Emory and Florida State.

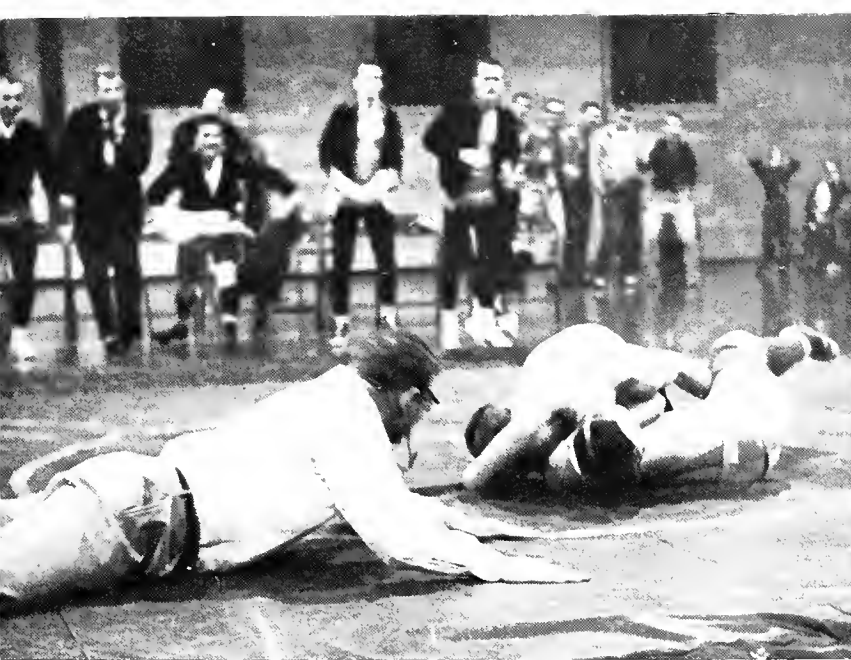

Although the 'Southern scores were on the wrong side of the tally, several of the team's members showed much promise. With a little more class and depth, the prospects for next year are bright.

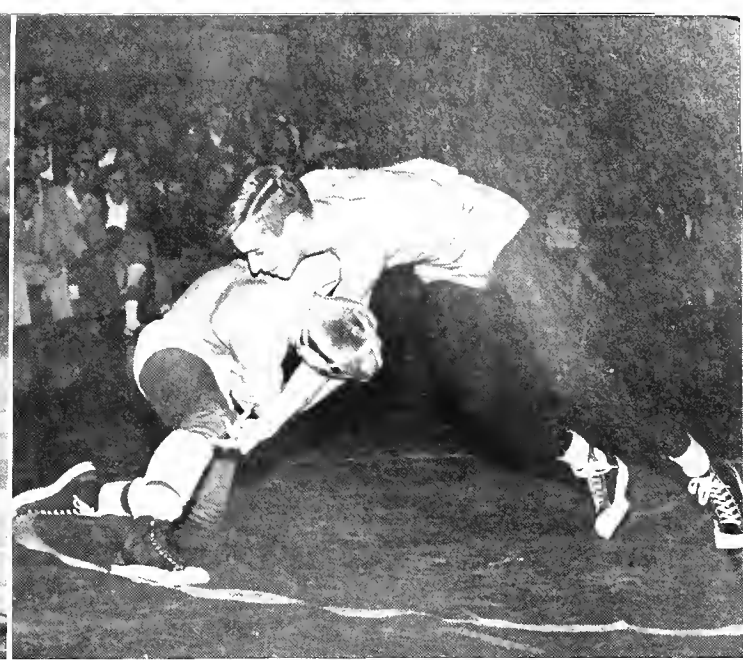

LETTERMAN DAVID Hearn swims in the breaststroke race for 'Southern in the meet with Sewanee.

DIVER, PAUL McCain represents Southern in the swimming part of the "Three Sport Day."

ELVIN HILYER pins his Sewanee opponent and wins his match while teammates cheer for him along the side lines.

IN A MATCH with Sewanee, Dan Kitchens puts up a good fight but bows to the experience of his rival.

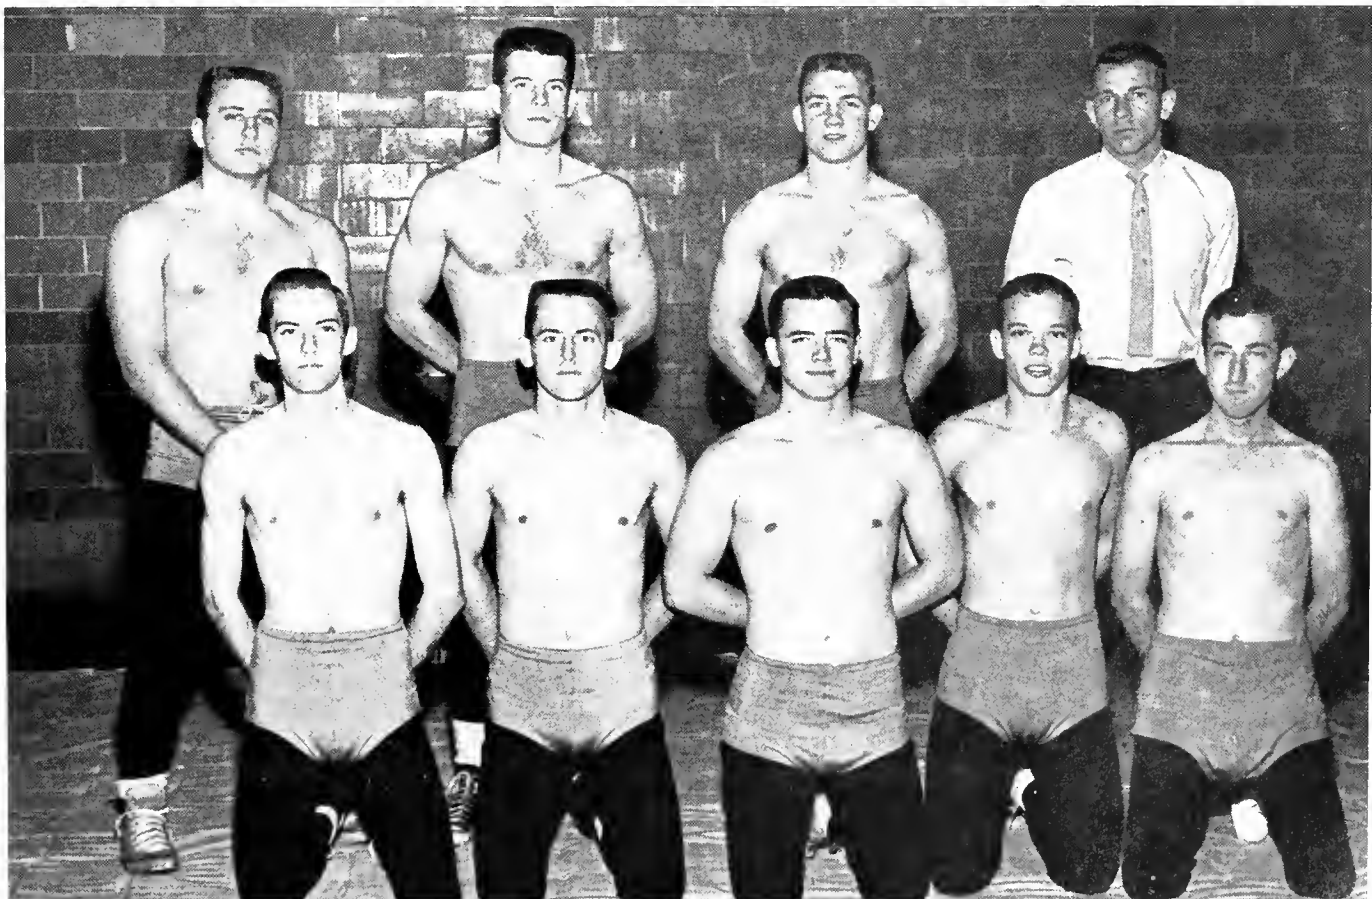

Southern's Baby

Birmingham-Southern's first wrestling team was added this year to the college Inter-Collegiate sports program.

Coached by Dick Downey, the men developed and progressed rapidly. They competed with Sewanee and Chattanooga, and although they didn't register any team wins, several team members won their respective matches.

If the team members continue to progress as much as they have this year, they will be the team to beat next year.

Cheerleaders

JAYNE HARPOLE and Betty Ann Howell served as cheerleader sponsors.

THE ENTHUSIASM and hard work of Head Cheerleader Bynum Waters was a major factor in stimulating school spirit.

Seven lovely and spirited girls led the cheering section for the varsity athletics this year.

Led by head cheerleader, Bynum Waters, the girls worked hard to develop new cheers and to stimulate school spirit among the game spectators.

Along with cheering at some of the road games and leading pep rallies, this year the girls served as hostesses for the college and the P. E. Department by guiding members of visiting athletic teams around campus.

Men's Intramural Sports

A varied and active intramural sports program at Birmingham-Southern offers an opportunity for hundreds of men to participate.

With Coach Bill Battle as director of intramurals, an Intramural Council, composed of representatives from each of the groups participating, govern and direct the intramural program. This council decides on rules that will guide intramural play and sets its own policies.

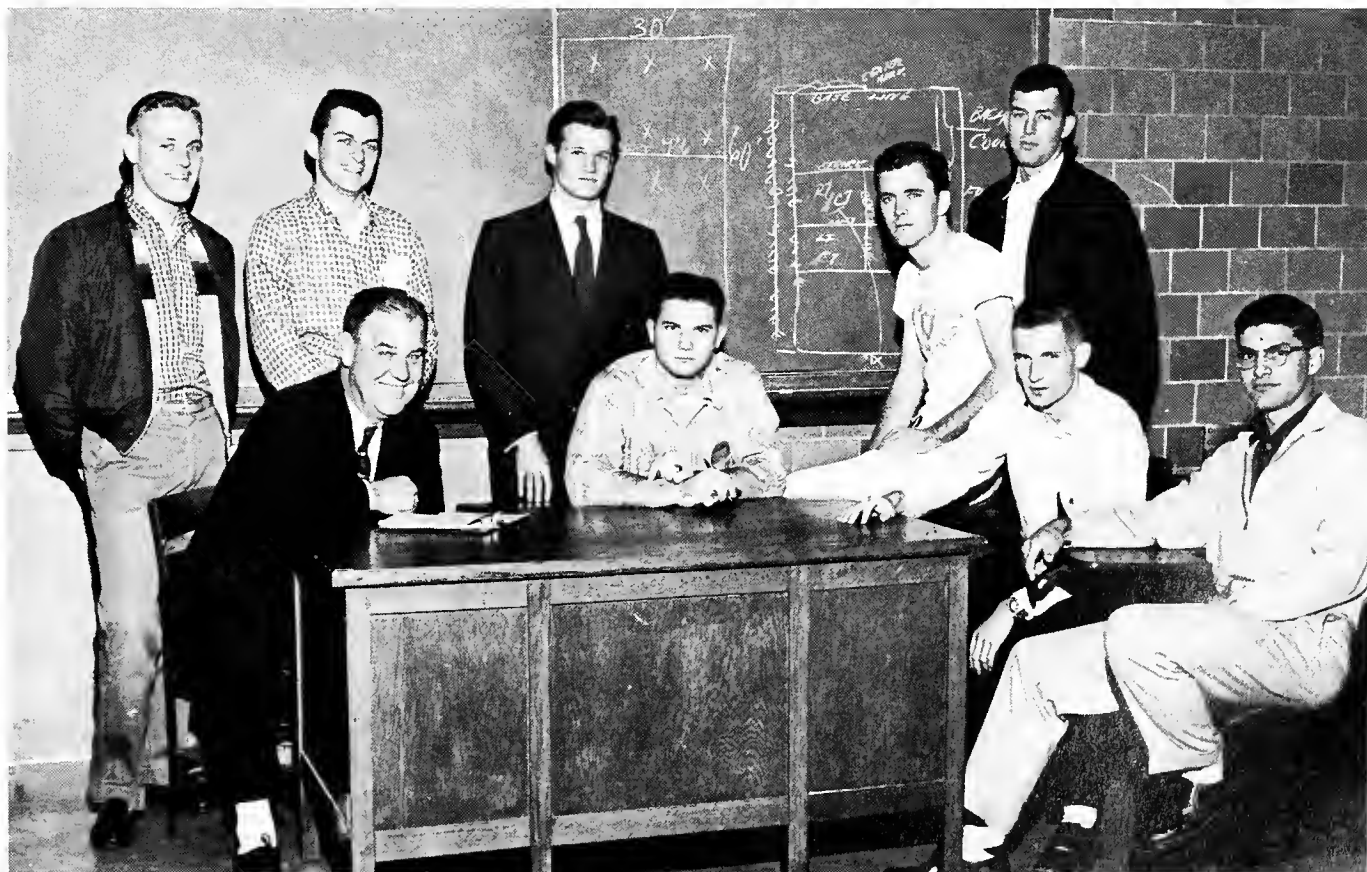

Competition is offered in touch football, basketball, swimming, volleyball, softball, ping-pong, paddleball, badminton and tennis. Cups and medals are given to the winners.

This year the ATOs were the team to beat in football, basketball, swimming and volleyball. Jim Pigman was the outstanding individual athlete.

GENE CARPER took second in the men's intramural ping-pong tournament.

'SOUTHERN BASKETBALL all-stars were challenged by the Montevallo all-stars. 'Southern all-stars won in a spirited game played on Intramural Night.

Women's Intramural Sports

Several hundred women actively participate in the women's intramural program each year at 'Southern.

Under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Davis, Director of Women's Physical Education, the Women's Intramural Council directly controls the intramural program. The council sets its own rules and elects managers of the various team and individual sports.

In the program is included softball, volleyball, basketball, tennis, swimming, ping-pong, badminton, and free throw.

Zeta Tau Alpha holds the Miss Victory Cup and Ramelle Moore is the outstanding individual athlete.

NELLIE is the backbone of the Women's P. E. Department.

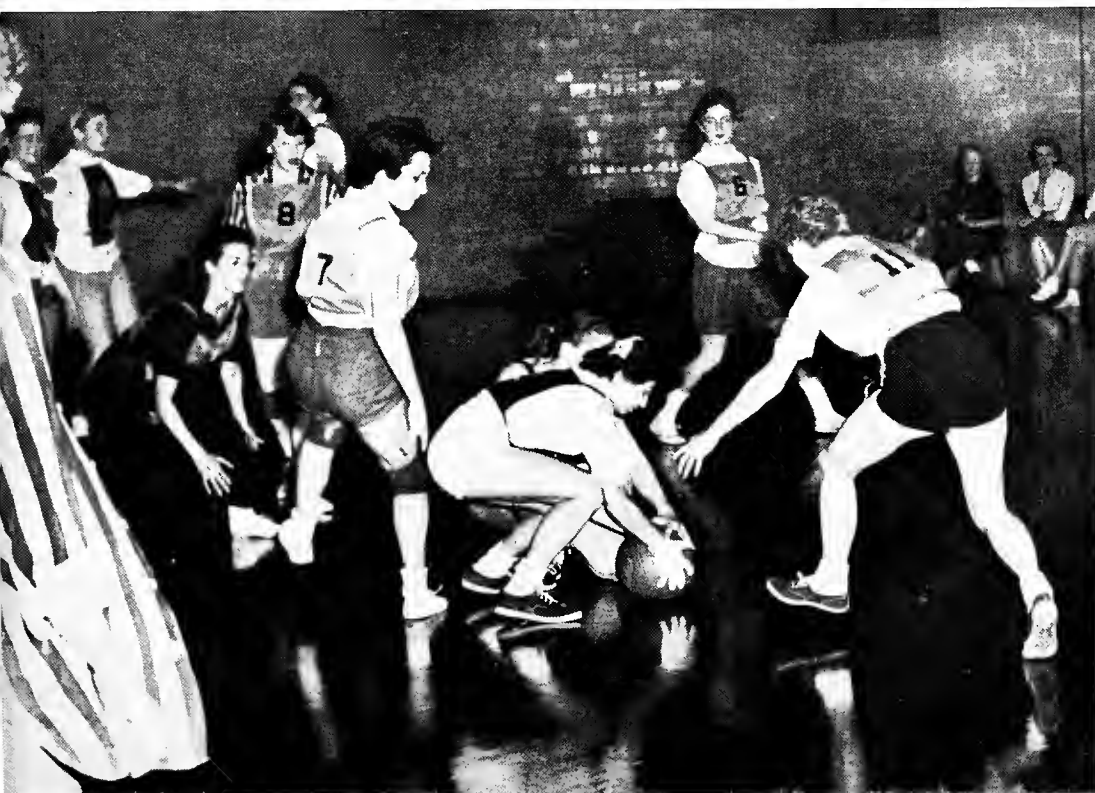

THE AOPis emerged victorious after decisively winning all 6 of the games that they played.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE Ramelle Moore defeated Anna Taylor to win the badminton tournament.

THE UNDEFEATED AOPi and Zeta teams met in a decisive game in which the AOPis proved themselves to be superior.

Sara Jo Cardwell became the free-throw champ by ringing 37 out of 50 baskets.

The cast of "Brigadoon" takes a well-deserved curtain call after a hit performance during the Festival of Arts.

Organizations

It's a little crowded but square dancing and folk games prove fun for all.

Freshman Camp

THE FOUR Hits and a Miss present a cute comedy number at the talent show on Saturday night.

The weekend before classes began in September, over 300 new students, faculty and student leaders met at Camp Winnataska, Leeds, Alabama, for the annual Freshman Camp.

Everyone had a wonderful time meeting new people and talking about exciting summers so recently past. Informal discussion groups were held concerning adjustments and problems of college life. Study habits and various campus activities were also discussed.

One of the highlights of the camp was the "Talent Show" on Saturday night. It was a good chance for the Music and Drama Departments to see what a host of talent there was in the Freshman Class.

The swimming pool area is a popular gathering place during free time.

DUCK SOON LYOU has a captive audience as she sings of her home land—(Korea).

Student leaders and faculty meet to discuss and plan various aspects of campus life.

A study-habits discussion group led by faculty and upper classmen proves helpful to Freshmen.

Students enjoy singing in the chapel led by college choir director, Mr. Anderson.

TESTS MAKE up the major part of the two-day orientation program.

MRS. HALE'S window is popular especially during registration.

Orientation and Registration

Tests, speakers, and parties fill the life of a Freshman in his two days of orientation and registration before classes begin.

Upper-classmen and administration get a chance to shine before the Freshmen as they are introduced and make speeches. Somehow, the Freshmen manage to live through it all. Maybe because it's fun in a hectic sort of way.

Discussion groups led by student leaders concern campus activities.

RAY Mathis begins the convocation service one day during REW.

Religious Emphasis Week

Varying opinions were given concerning Religious Emphasis Week this year and the outstanding, intellectual young minister from Vero Beach, Florida — the Reverend James Armstrong — who spoke.

The theme for the week was "God in Modern Life," and Rev. Armstrong broke it down into "God and Man," "God and Science," "God and Society," and "God and Religion."

Religious services at convocation, discussion groups, nightly dorm devotionals, a communion service and private consultations were special emphasis of the week.

THE ROMAN Catholic students hold services of their own.

Discussion groups with Dr. Armstrong prove challenging and helpful.

Miss Southern Accent Pageant

Under the leadership of Martin Hames, a new and thrilling campus function was added to 'Southern's list of activities this year by the yearbook staff; it was the "Miss Southern Accent Pageant," which presented the fifteen finalists in the judging for the yearbook queen, Miss Southern Accent.

From these fifteen, the judges—Miss Lilly Mae Caldwell, Mr. William Brasher, Mrs. David Roberts, III, and Mr. Bill Ozier — chose Miss Barbara Neely as the new Miss Southern Accent. She was crowned by the new Southern president, Dr. Henry King Stanford, and a dance featuring the Auburn Knights was held in her honor following the pageant.

THE NEW president, Dr. Henry Stanford, crowns the new Miss Southern Accent, Barbara Neely.

AUBURN KNIGHTS furnish the music for the Miss Southern Accent Dance which follows the pageant.

DIRECTOR of the pageant—Martin Hames.

THE CAT MOUNTAIN Four entertain the royal court of Southern beauties.

"Presenting the Miss Southern Accent finalists to you, the public, to decide who will be Miss Southern Accent."

"RHYMES HAVE I, many rhymes have I," sing Andrew Gainey and Barbara Gibbs.

PAGES, Clay Long and Jim Patterson, present Barbara Neely with the royal cape of Miss Southern Accent.

Music at B-S-C

Fun, hard work, and personal satisfaction fill the lives of all those taking some part in music at Birmingham-Southern.

The B-S-C Choir, under the direction of Mr. Raymond Anderson, is known all over Alabama and the nearby southern states for its high quality of singing and leadership. Many convocation programs, a beautiful Christmas carol service, a choir trip through south Alabama and Florida, "Brigadoon", "Elijah", and many performances before civic groups were among the choir's productions this year.

CHOIR DIRECTOR, Mr. Raymond Anderson, and Assistant, Ginny Sue Trimble, go over some choir music.

THE CHOIR'S quartet is a favorite singing group with students.

The full choir is one of the most popular organizations on campus, with over 100 members.

TO BE chosen for the Birmingham-Southern Touring Choir is the aim of every choir member.

THE CONSERVATORY Opera Workshop presents the chamber opera, "The Shepherds of the Delectable Mountain."

The Christmas program presented by the combined choirs of McCoy Church and B-S-C is one of the musical highlights of the year.

THE SOUTHERN ACCENT Dance with music by the Auburn Knights is one of the most popular dances of the year.

"See the Jaguar"

A new kind of play and acting experience came to the Hilltop this year when Rebecca Jennings directed "See the Jaguar."

The plot concerns a young mountain girl who falls in love with a man whom her father thinks is a coward; therefore, he forbids their marriage. The girl becomes pregnant and the young man is faced with the decision of whether to keep his ideals about killing or to concede to the girl's father so they can get married. A struggle arises and the young man is killed. The girl leaves the mountain and her father to bring up the child as its father had wanted it to be brought up.

Beauty and symbolism run deeply through the rawness, blindness, and savagery of the mountain life and people.

Leiser Chandler portrayed the young girl; Paul Crow was the young school teacher; John Kitchens was the father; and Art Hopper was the jealous right-hand man for the father.

CONSTANT CONFLICT lies between Janna (Leiser Chandler) and her father, Brad (John Kitchens), because of Janna's love for Dave Ricks.

HILLTOP (Art Hopper) and Brad (John Kitchens) argue violently over what to do with Wally (Jack Spann).

Dave (Paul Crow) has lied to Brad about killing the Jaquar and Brad has found out about it.

"Brigadoon"

With its misty realm combined with the miracle of love, "Brigadoon," the land of enchantment, brought a week of delightful magic to the Hilltop this year.

The story centers around two American men who wander into the mystic, Scottish village of Brigadoon. One of the men falls in love with a Scottish girl. The men leave but return a year or so later. Through the power of love, Tommy Albright, is allowed to remain in the land of Brigadoon.

Featured players for this successful production, directed by Stuart Mims, were: Andrew Gainey as Tommy Albright, Teresa Rinaldi and Barbara Gibbs as Fiona MacLaren, Art Hooper as Jeff Douglas, Leiser Chandler as Jane Ashton, Jackie Wells as Jean MacLaren, Delbert Bailey as Archie Beaton, Don Walker and Richard Englund as Harry Beaton, Tommy Reeves as Mr. Lundie, Willie Graves and Marshall Spann as Charlie Dalrymple, Don Brown as Angus MacGuffie, Jack Mann as Sandy Dean, Jane Goad and Pat King as Meg Brockie, Mack Finney as Frank, and Ginger Humphreys as Maggie Anderson.

LOVE AND Marriage is the theme of discussion as Tommy Albright (Andrew Gainey) talks to Fiona MacLaren (Barbara Gibbs, in top picture, and Teresa Rinaldi, in lower picture).

MEG BROCKIE (Pat King) tells Tommy Albright (Andrew Gainey) and Jeff Douglas (Art Hopper) about life in Brigadoon.

GETTING READY for her wedding, Bonnie Jean (Jackie Wells), helped by friends (Civic Ballet dancers) dances to "Come to Me, Bend to Me".

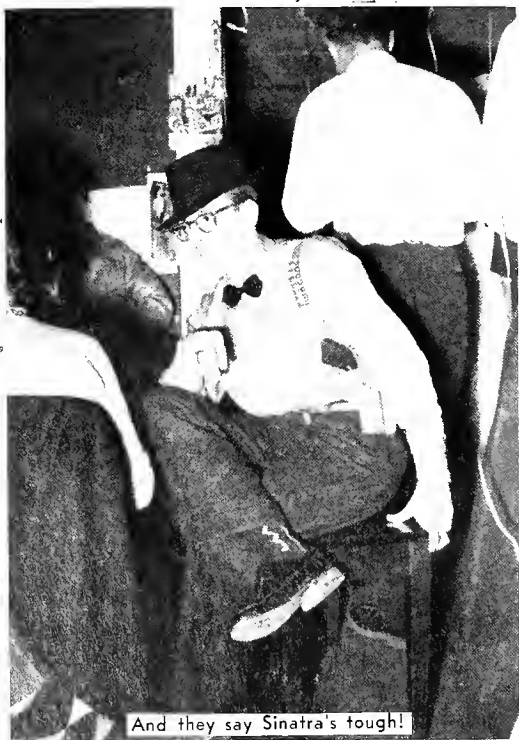

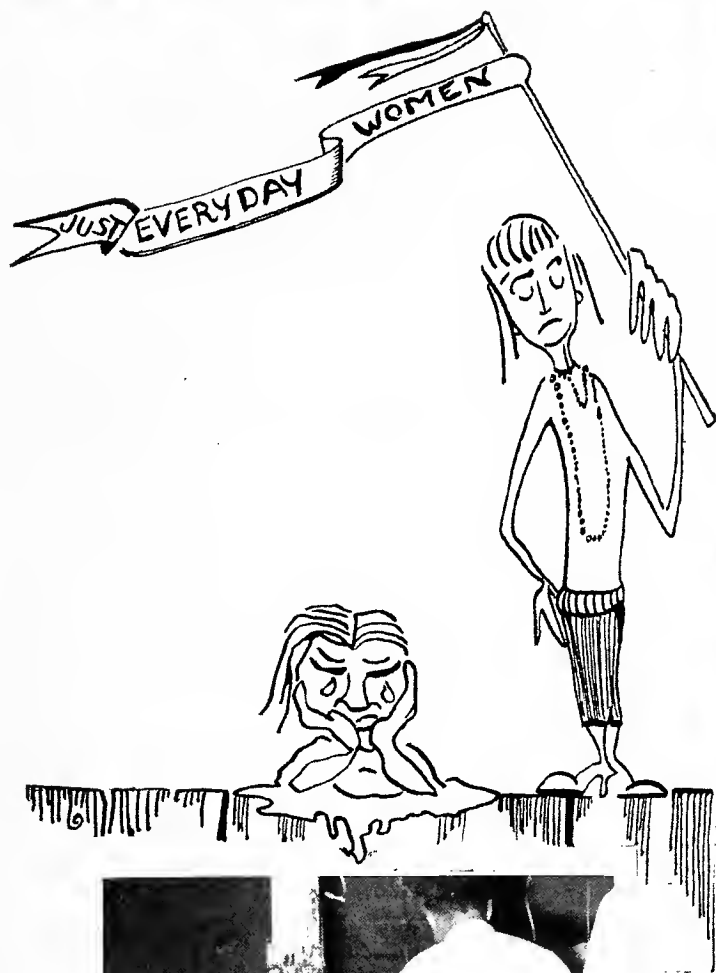

SANDY (Jack Mann) sells candy at the Fair to some of the townspeople (College Choir members) of Brigadoon.

THROUGH THE miracle of make-up, Tom Reeves becomes Mr. Lundie, the school master of Brigadoon.

I'm just nearsighted

WE did it!

Man, I'm limp

What's cooking, GOOD LOOKING?

For me?

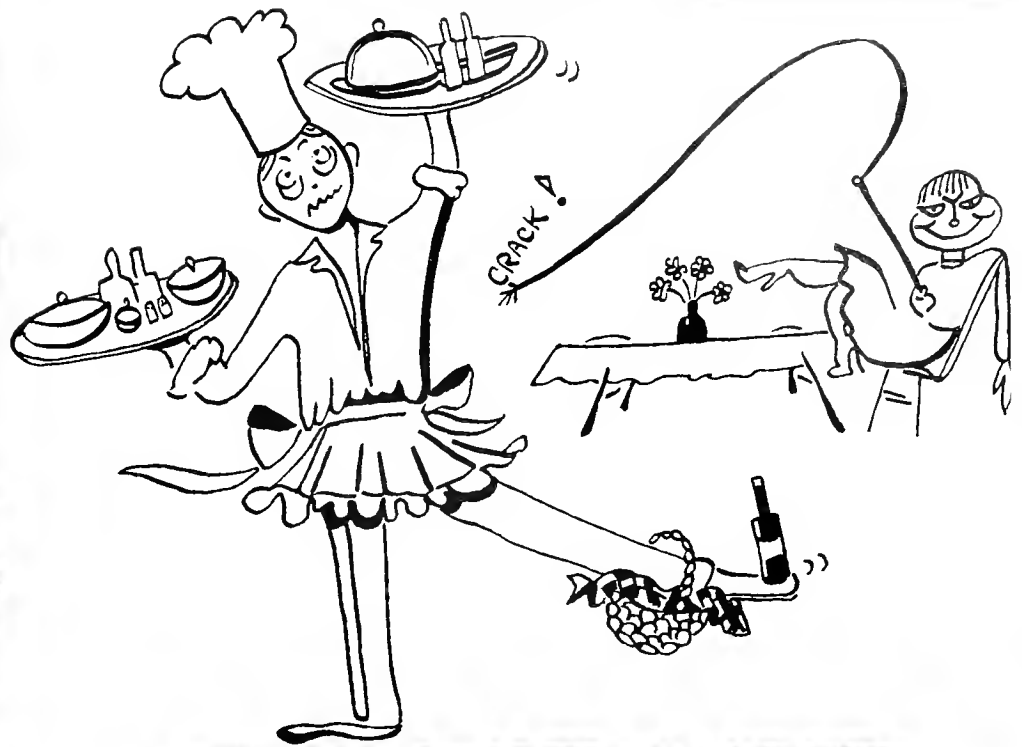

Don't just sit there—do something

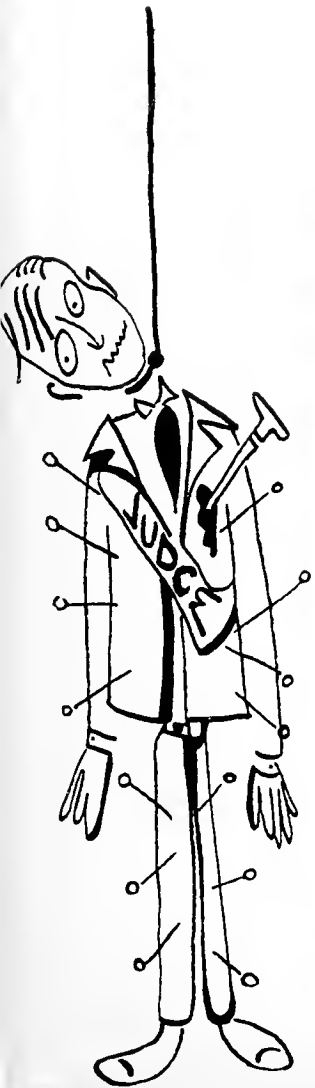

Dinner's not quite ready yet

That chick at the next table . . . WHERE? WHERE? WHERE?

Ya mean we ALL won?

Just a little pow-wow

To make Waldorf salad—

Hey, wait—I didn't say go

STOP thief!

Har! Har!

You're pinching me

We salute our alternate Miss Ala.

Water Ballet

A splash and the 1958 Water Ballet was on. "Aquatic Autumn" was the appropriate name and it featured different fall activities centered around a woodland scene. Thor Stiff was the hunter and picnics were choir members who supplied the music for the show.

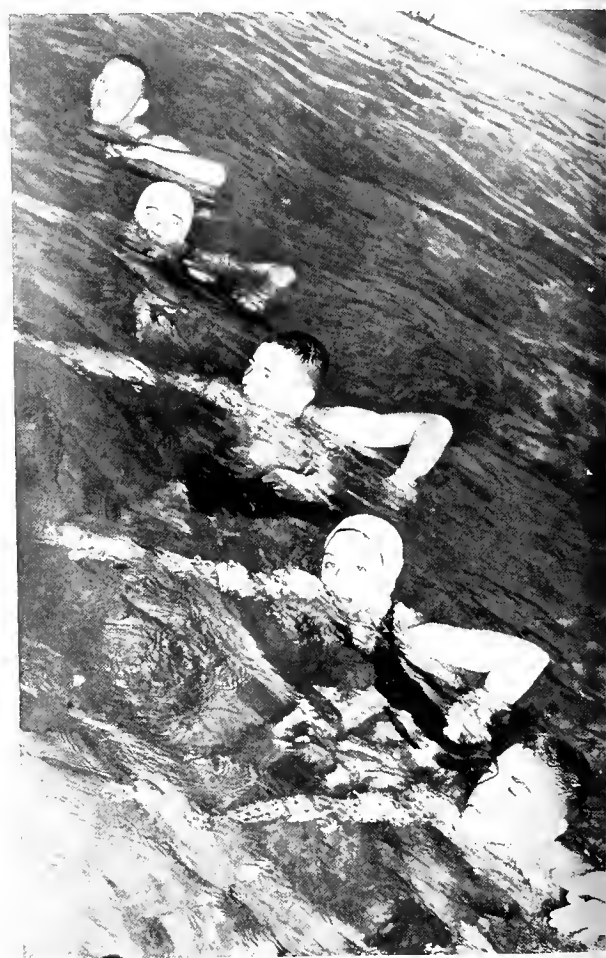

Many said that it was the best water ballet held at Southern in many years. Directors, Miss Davis and Virginia Shaw, and swimmers, deserved much applause.

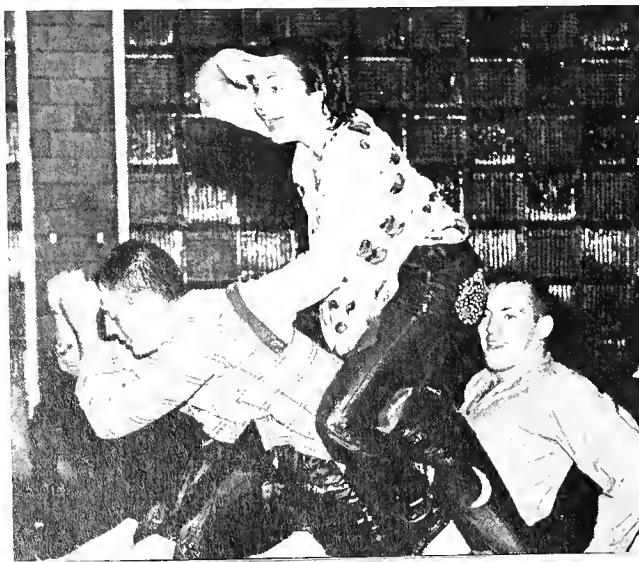

DIRECTORS Virginia Shaw and Miss Davis put a Fall theme into the Water Ballet with Aquatic Autumn.

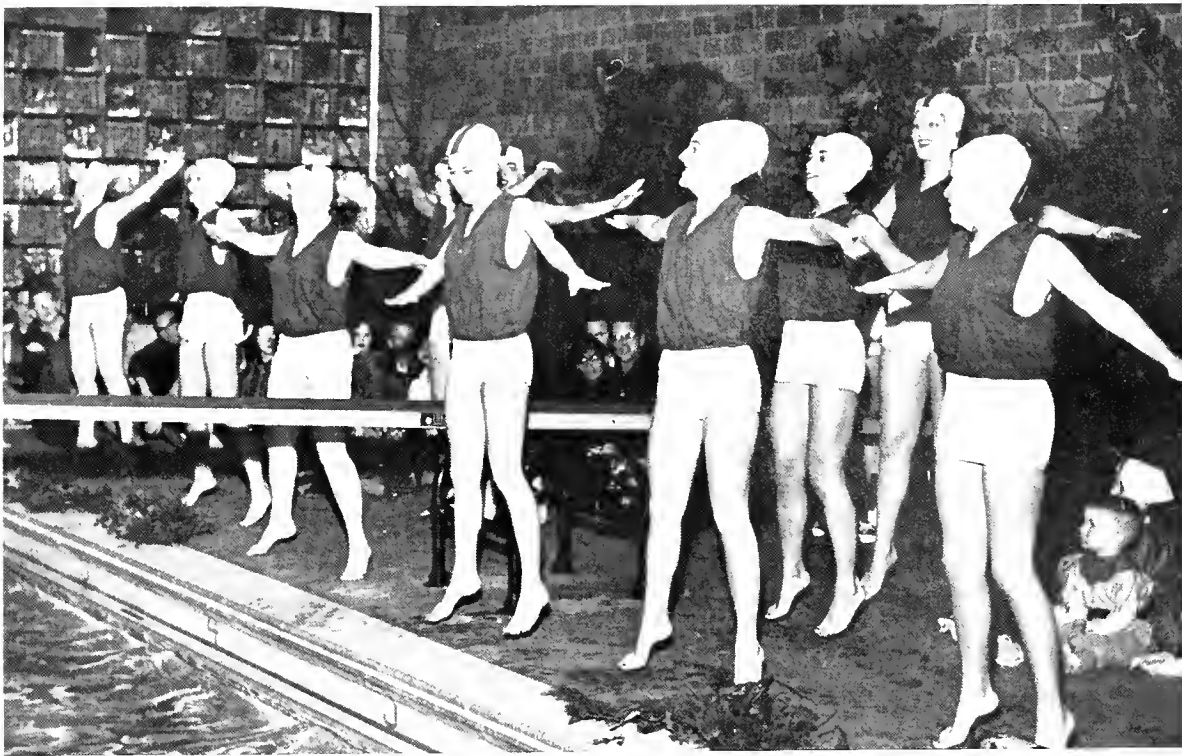

"LADIES TO the center and form a star" as the ballet gives a good rendition of a Western square dance.

WEEKS OF practice showed off with rhythm swimming of Stephens, Statom, Gillespy, Shaw, and Braswell.

JIM ENSOR, 1958 Mr. Hilltopper, gets a kiss from Bynum Waters.

Mr. Hilltopper

For over fourteen consecutive years the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority has presented the Mr. Hilltopper show. This year, top-notch talent entertained in an "Around the World" theme.

Candidates for Mr. Hilltopper are nominated by each of the social sororities and fraternities on campus. The audience at the performance votes for their choice for Mr. Hilltopper. At the dance following the show, the new Mr. Hilltopper is announced. This year the winner was Jim Ensor, sponsored by the Theta Upsilon sorority.

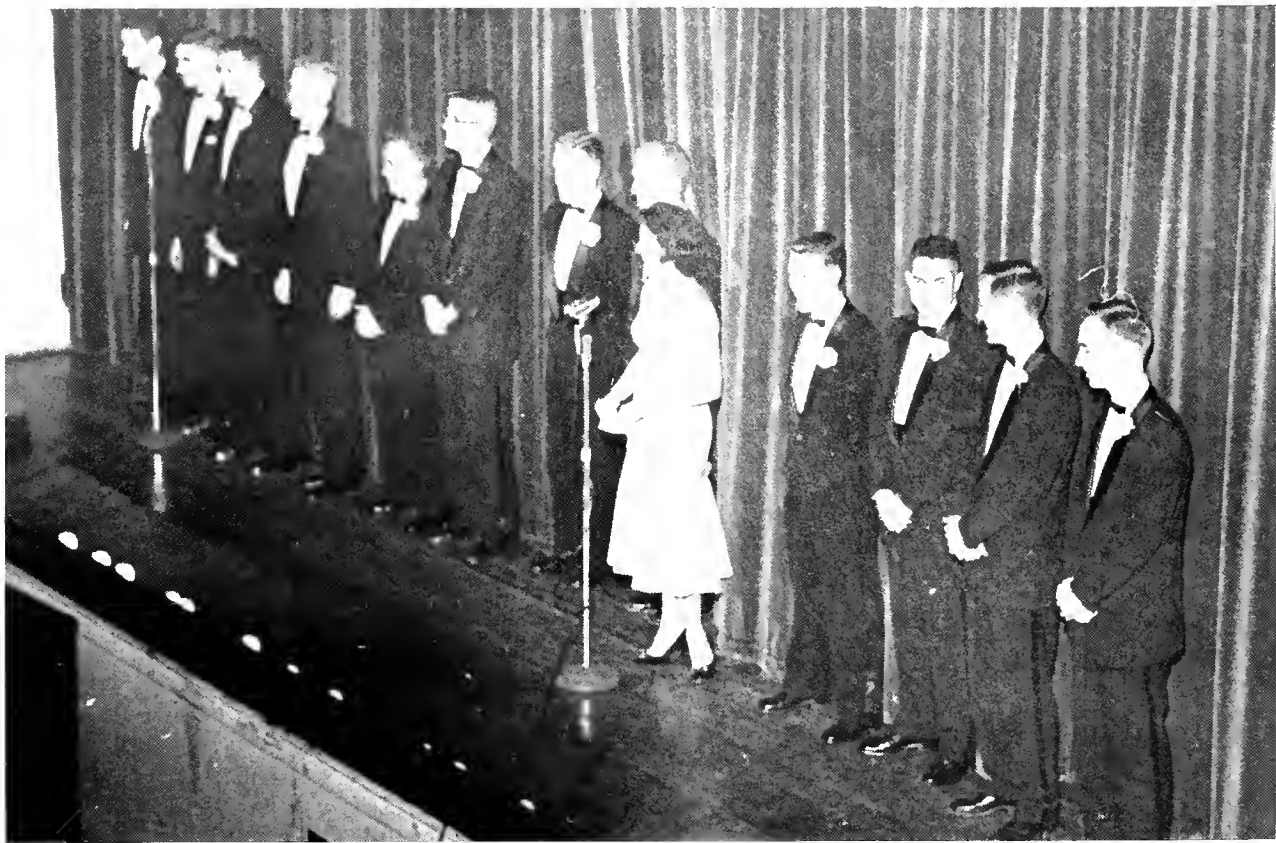

THE AOPi chorus line opens and closes the annual show.

LINDA STOKES, AOPi president, presents the AOPi outstanding senior member plaques to Gloria Spruill and Bynum Waters.

The Theta Upsilon "Backwards Skit" was one of the top numbers of the Mr. Hilltopper Show.

Virginia Shaw introduces the candidates for Mr. Hilltopper as: Ben Price, Louis Braswell, Jim Ensor, Don Brown, Ray Mathis, Mike Donahue, Kenny Richardson, Brad Fulkerson, Sam Brewer, Charles Fowler, Milton Boykin, and Jerry Sisson.

POPULAR singer, Tommy Charles, thrills the audience.

THE ZTA minstrel skit steals the show with "I'm Birmingham-Southern Bound."

BEAUTIFUL Teresa Rinaldi sings a selection from "La Boheme."

An old-time movie done in reflections showing "Why Johnny Doesn't Read" won first place for the TUs and SAEs.

Catspaw

Fun, humor and seasoned ridicule reigned supreme on January 18th when Greek and Independent groups presented Catspaw, the annual stunt night.

Catspaw, the only time of the year when "cuts" are legal, was won by the TU-SAE's "Old Time Movie Newsreel." Second and third place winners, respectively, were KD-PiKA's "The King and Us," and ZTA-LXA's "The Basement."

One of the highlights came in the AXO-ATO's take-off on "The Miss Southern Accent Pageant" when big John Thompson appeared as "Snooks" Neely.

V-PRES. of Student Body, Steve Kimbrough, presents the winning cups to Cardwell, TU, and Price, SAE.

Zeta Tau Alpha and Lambda Chi Alpha looked into "The Cellar" and presented "The Basement" for a third place win.

KD and PiKA take us on an imaginary trip to far-off Turkey as they present "The King and Us."

Tears are shed by the AXOs and ATOs as the Miss Southern Accent Pageant is relived.

"Arnold Goes to College" and there meets the PiPhi's and the Independent Men.

JOHNNY BIDDLE seems to be pretty proud of his son, Jeff, and you can see why.

LINDA AND STEVE Morino take a coffee break and enjoy a private joke before going to class.

LOY AND ANTONETTA Hill take time out from their studies to pose for the camera in the library.

PAUL ISN'T too sure whether he wants that cookie from Pappa Langford; Robbie looks on rather doubtfully, too.

From ACIPCO ... A Promise For Progress

For more than fifty years, the name Acipco has been synonymous with quality cast iron pipe and fittings. To homes, to offices, factories, mills and plants throughout America, pipe manufactured by the American Cast Iron Pipe Company conducts liquids and gases vital to human well-being and industrial progress. Few other manufactured products serve so many basic needs so well . . . or contribute, through their service, so much to the progress of our nation.

Today, in addition to cast iron pipe, the American Cast Iron Pipe Company produces centrifugally spun steel tubing. Already, products manufactured from these versatile steel cylinders serve virtually every modern industry. Hundreds of new applications are being developed.

Acipco's program of aggressive research, engineering development, and expansion of production facilities promises an even greater contribution of service to America tomorrow.
